

What went well?

What should we keep doing?
What should we celebrate?
Where did we make progress?

What went poorly?

Where did we have problems?
What was frustrating to us or others?
What held us back?

[Topic of the retrospective]

A tour description is not the place to boast — that's for writing an About Us page. Your potential customers won't care about how many awards your tour has won or what inspired you to create the tour.

The primary inputs are then processed further through manufacturing or construction into intermediate (or processed) inputs.

Travel to a new place, a place you've never been to before. Make a new bucket list and try striking them off whenever you get the chance to

The economic contribution of tourism is felt in both direct and indirect ways, where direct economic impacts are created when commodities like the following are sold:

There are both positive and negative effects on communities related to the economic impacts of tourism in their communities

Employment, and both its availability and exclusivity, are subsets of economic impacts of tourism.[

You don't recognize the value of talent that exists in your current workforce. The people are there, but you don't see them

Your workers don't recognize the value of their talent as it relates to your strategy. The opportunity is there, but they don't see it.

Your workers haven't been sufficiently trained to reach their highest levels of potential when performing their work.

vMore than 90% of CEOs believe their companies will change more in the next five years than they did in the last five.

Having a workforce that's ready and able to harness that change will make the difference between success and failure.

Community-based tourism is a way of sustainable tourism that allows travellers to closely connect to local communities.

What ideas do you have?

What ideas do you have for future work together?
Where do you see opportunities to improve?
What has untapped potential?

How should we take action?